Lighting of the Advent Candles:

We praise you, O God, for this victory wreath that marks our days of preparation for Christ's advent. As we light the candles on this wreath, strengthen our hearts as we await the Lord's coming in glory. Enlighten us with your grace, that we may serve our neighbors in need. Grant this through Christ our Lord, whose coming is certain and whose day draws near. Amen.

Confession and Forgiveness

Blessed be God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, whose forgiveness is sure and whose steadfast love endures forever.

Amen.

Let us honestly and humbly confess that we have not lived as God desires.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Loving and forgiving God,

We confess that we are held captive by sin. In spite of our best efforts, we have gone astray. We have not welcomed the stranger; we have not loved our neighbor; we have not been Christ to one another. Restore us, O God. Wake us up and turn us from our sin. Renew us each day in the light of Christ. Amen.

People of God, hear this glad news: by God's endless grace your sins are forgiven, and you are free-free from all that holds you back and free to live in the peaceable realm of God. May you be strengthened in God's love, comforted by Christ's peace, and accompanied with the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Prayer of the Day:

Stir up the wills of your faithful people, Lord God, and open our ears to the words of your prophets, that, anointed by your Spirit, we may testify to your light; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

WORD

First Reading: Isaiah 61:1-4, 8-11

Psalm 126

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 5:16-24

Holy Gospel: John 1:6-8, 19-28

Reflection on today's gospel:

Rev. Dr. Courtney Bugs is a Visiting Assistant Professor of Homiletics and Louisville Postdoctoral Fellow at Christian Theological Seminary, Indianapolis, Indiana. When considering today's Gospel Readings, she writes that she was reminded of the power of testimony: "One of my earliest memories of attending church with my grandmother (affectionately known as Big Mama) is of testimony service. At Big Mama's church there was singing and praying and preaching, and testimonies...adults and children would spontaneously stand up and witness to the goodness of God—which they called testifyin'. They seemed to know God, even as they wanted to know God more deeply."

We hear the words "testify" and "testimony" a lot these days, particularly with reference to the court cases that seem to define the American electoral system. Rev. Dr. Bugs is, of course, referring specifically to testimony to God's truth, and here she presents the facts of that case: "Present with God and in God from the creation and born to a girl named Mary—such is the Light of the world of whom John testifies."

John the Baptist, then, was sent by God to testify as a witness to this miracle that is Jesus, the Word made flesh among us. John is the son of Zechariah and Elizabeth, and he may well have heard the testimonies of his mother

Elizabeth and Mary, the mother of Jesus, about how John leapt in Elizabeth's womb at the voice of a pregnant Mary. And, in fact, it was God who revealed Jesus to John who, unlike the disciples, had not spent time travelling with Jesus and learning about who he was: 'Even I didn't recognize him,' asserts John, 'but the One who sent me told me how to recognize Him.'

When God speaks, that is a testimony we cannot ignore. When the Jews sent priests and Levites to grill John, asking who are you, John understands that they are really asking are you the One? Rev. Dr. Bugs clarifies what John says, declaring "that he is not the One—not the Messiah, not Elijah, not the Prophet. His testimony defers to the One who offers light and life: I am not the One you seek; He is coming after me and already is among you. John further distinguishes himself from Jesus as the voice of one crying in the wilderness, echoing the prophet Isaiah: God is the One who provides the way to salvation."

The testimonies we hear and read in the news reports these days seem determined to remind us that truth in testimony is not necessarily truth in reality. But the testimonies that come from God through the reading of His Word are very real. The Rev. Dr. Bugs' closing words are especially poignant in this month of December, 2020:

"John's testimony of Jesus reverberates across time as we look forward in this Advent season. We are reminded to thoughtfully consider our testimonies of word and deed—do our lives witness to the light of God within? In the midst of darkness, disappointments, and dreary outlooks, God sent Light into the world. Trying times have the possibility to yield tremendous testimonies. May God's people ever bear witness that the Light is come and is now here. Thanks be to God." PGK

Prayers of Intercession:

God of power and might, shine your radiance and come quickly to this weary world. Hear our prayers for everyone in need.

A Brief Silence

God of preachers and messengers, you have entrusted your church with the work of proclaiming good news. Strengthen the witness of bishops, pastors, deacons, church musicians, lay leaders, and all people who contribute their prayers and talents to public worship. Embed your word in their hearts. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

God of every living creature, you announce the year of your favor for all of creation. Extend your kindness and relief to endangered animals and plants. Strengthen the human beings who rely on the rhythms of nature to make their living. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

God of all peoples and nations, you plant us as your oaks of righteousness and ask us to care for one another. Be present with the leaders of every nation as they govern. Give them a spirit of righteousness, that your goodness and mercy is revealed through their actions. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

God of exiles and wanderers, you repair what was once destroyed. We pray for people who have been displaced from their homes by fire, flood, earthquake, or storm. Support the work of Lutheran World Relief, Lutheran Disaster Response, and all disaster relief organizations in their recovery efforts. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

God of the powerful and helpless, you clothe us with strength when our spirits are weak and weary. Bestow your spirit upon this congregation and empower us to comfort the people who turn to us in times of need. We remember (especially...). Make your church a place of refuge and healing. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

God of sinners and saints, you offer joy even in the midst of our grief. We are grateful for the beloved, imperfect people whose lives testified to your radiant love. Anoint all who mourn with the oil of gladness. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Draw near to us, O God, and receive our prayers for the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Let us remember in our prayers: Andrew Nosterud, Harry Meister, Edwin Loessin, Lisa Hamp, Sonia Zacharias, Darren Wilkie, Carla Wilkie, Susan Wonko, Heather Penno, Inga Abrahamson, Genie Thompson, Linda Hartshorn, Logan Kane, Alma Krueger, Anthony Flath, Elsie Flath, Conrad Olson, Ethel Kuny, Mark Anderson, Roger Wilkie, also everyone affected by Covid 19, especially the Regional Psyc Centre and the Luther Special Care Home.

This has been a week of hope for our community - in fact for the whole world - with the news that Covid-defeating vaccines are being rolled out. Protection throughout our communities and our church is still a long way off, however, and we urge everyone to avoid gathering in groups larger than your household "bubble" over the Christmas season. Covid has found its way, and is circulating, in our area; please be careful!

This will be discussed at the January meetings. Similarly, we also plan to keep FSLC Council positions in 2021 very similar to 2020.
- FSLC envelope giving is down a bit this year and December is usually a big month for the church - obviously that will not be happening this year. So, please, if you can, make a catch-up offering this month or an additional offering.
- Envelopes can be mailed to: Roxanne Elke, P.O. Box 272, Grandora, Sask. S0K 1V0
- We also now take eTransfers; just make sure you put your envelope number in the message portion as well as your intended disbursement of the funds. Send your eTransfers to: firstsasklutheranchurch@gmail.com

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 61:1-4, 8-11

61 The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me;
he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed,
    to bind up the brokenhearted,
    to proclaim liberty to the captives,
    and release to the prisoners;
2 to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor,
    and the day of vengeance of our God;
    to comfort all who mourn;
3 to provide for those who mourn in Zion—
    to give them a garland instead of ashes,
the oil of gladness instead of mourning,
    the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit.
They will be called oaks of righteousness,
    the planting of the LORD, to display his glory.
4 They shall build up the ancient ruins,
    they shall raise up the former devastations;
they shall repair the ruined cities,
    the devastations of many generations.
8 For I the LORD love justice,
    I hate robbery and wrongdoing;
I will faithfully give them their recompense,
    and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.
9 Their descendants shall be known among the nations,
    and their offspring among the peoples;
all who see them shall acknowledge that they are a people whom the LORD has blessed.
10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD,
    my whole being shall exult in my God;
for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation,
    he has covered me with the robe of righteousness,
as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland,

and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth brings forth its shoots,
    and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up,
so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise
    to spring up before all the nations.

SECOND READING: 1 THESSALONIANS 5:16-24

<sup>16</sup> Rejoice always, <sup>17</sup> pray without ceasing, <sup>18</sup> give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. <sup>19</sup> Do not quench the Spirit. <sup>20</sup> Do not despise the words of prophets, <sup>21</sup>but test everything; hold fast to what is good; <sup>22</sup>abstain from every form of evil.

<sup>23</sup> May the God of peace himself sanctify you entirely; and may your spirit and soul and body be kept sound and blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup> The one who calls you is faithful, and he will do this.

GOSPEL: JOHN 1:6-8, 19-28

<sup>6</sup> There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. <sup>7</sup> He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. <sup>8</sup> He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light.

<sup>19</sup> This is the testimony given by John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" <sup>20</sup> He confessed and did not deny it, but confessed, "I am not the Messiah." <sup>21</sup> And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the prophet?" He answered, "No." <sup>22</sup> Then they said to him, "Who are you? Let us have an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

<sup>23</sup> He said,

"I am the voice of one crying out in the wilderness,
    'Make straight the way of the Lord,'"
as the prophet Isaiah said.

<sup>24</sup> Now they had been sent from the Pharisees. <sup>25</sup> They asked him, "Why then are you baptizing if you are neither the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?" <sup>26</sup> John answered them, "I baptize with water. Among you stands one whom you do not know, <sup>27</sup> the one who is coming after me; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandal." <sup>28</sup> This took place in Bethany across the Jordan where John was baptizing.
