Greeting:
L: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
C: And also with you.

Prayer of the Day:
Everlasting God, in your endless love for the human race you sent our Lord Jesus Christ to take on our nature and to suffer death on the cross.
In your mercy enable us to share in his obedience to your will and in the glorious victory of his resurrection, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

WORD
First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-9a
Psalm 31:9-16
Second Reading: Philippians 2:5-11
Holy Gospel: Mark 15:1-39

Prayers of Intercession:
Relying on the promises of God, we pray boldly
for the church, the world, and all in need.
A Brief Silence
In Jesus you came among us as a suffering servant. Give your church humility. Redeem your people from pride and the certainty that we always know your will. Heal us and empower us to confess Christ crucified. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.
In creation, life springs from death. Redeem our creation awaiting resurrection: restore lost habitats and endangered species. Create new possibilities for areas affected by climate change, grant relief from natural disasters, and nurture new growth. Hear us, O God.
Your mercy is great.
Jesus was handed over to the powers of this world. In all nations, instruct the powerful, that they would not exploit their power but maintain justice. Sustain soldiers, and guide those who command them, that they service those in greatest need. Hear us, O God.
Your mercy is great.

On the cross Jesus joined all who feel forsaken.
Abide with those who are condemned to death.
Defend those who are falsely accused. Console and strengthen those who are mocked or bullied.
Accompany all who suffer (especially...); grant respite and renewal. Hear us, O God.
Your mercy is great.
You called followers to tend Jesus' body in death. Sustain hospice workers and funeral directors. Bless this congregation's ministries at times of death: those who plan and lead funerals, those who prepare meals, all who offer support in grief. Hear us, O God.
Your mercy is great.

You inspired the centurion to confess Jesus as your Son. We praise you for the faith you have given to people of all places and times. Give us also such faith to trust the promises of baptism and, with them, to look for the resurrection of the dead. Hear us, O God.
Your mercy is great.

We entrust ourselves and all our prayers to you,
O faithful God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Blessing:
God bless us that we may be a blessing, in the name of the holy and life-giving Trinity. Amen.

Sunday of the Passion: This week, the center of the church's year, is one of striking contrasts:
Jesus rides into Jerusalem surrounded by shouts of glory only to be left alone to die on the cross, abandoned by even his closest friends. Mark's gospel presents Jesus in his complete human vulnerability: agitated, grieved, scared, forsaken. Though we lament Christ's suffering and all human suffering, we also expect God's salvation: in the wine and bread, Jesus promises that his death will mark a new covenant with all people. We enter this holy week thirsty for the completion of God's astonishing work.

Let us remember in our prayers: Walter Ewert,
Alice Hamp, Andrew Nosterud, Shirley Neufeld, Ken
Neufeld, Dawna Flath, Harry Meister, Darren
Wilkie, Susan Wonko, Genie Thompson, Linda
Hartshorn, Logan Kane, Roger Wilkie

Also, Wally & Elfrieda Roth and family on the passing of his sister, Edna Froese on March 24.

This week:
TODAY: 2:00p - Kinasao's 2020 Annual General
Meeting via Zoom
WEDNESDAY, March 31: 1:30p - Cotton Pickin'
Quilters at St. Paul

There will be NO Easter Service this year.

Thank you to Lawrence Schensney & Irene (G) Hamp
for leading us in worship this morning at St.
Paul.

First Sask - there will be palm leaves left in the church entry on Friday if anyone would like to pick some up for Palm Sunday.

Note from Sask Synod & Bishop Sid:

Our long journey in pandemic days continues. With decreasing active case numbers and increasing vaccination numbers, we are hoping for more 'normal' days ahead. But we still have some months of 'working it out' ahead. During this time, I am offering an opportunity to be brought together in worship in a synod wide series of Holy Week services. I hope you can join us. Details on the services and the connecting links are at <https://sasksynod.ca/synod-wide-holy-week-services/>

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 50:4-9a

4 The Lord GOD has given me
the tongue of a teacher,
that I may know how to sustain
the weary with a word.
Morning by morning he awakens—
awakens my ear
to listen as those who are taught.
5 The Lord GOD has opened my ear,
and I was not rebellious,
I did not turn backward.
6 I gave my back to those who struck me,
and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;
I did not hide my face
from insult and spitting.
7 The Lord GOD helps me;
therefore I have not been disgraced;
therefore I have set my face like flint,
and I know that I shall not be put to shame;
8 he who vindicates me is near.
Who will contend with me?
Let us stand up together.
Who are my adversaries?
Let them confront me.
9 It is the Lord GOD who helps me;
who will declare me guilty?

SECOND READING: PHILIPPIANS 2:5-11

5 Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus,
6 who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,
7 but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,

being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
<sup>8</sup> he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death—
even death on a cross.
<sup>9</sup> Therefore God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name
that is above every name, <sup>10</sup> so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth, <sup>11</sup> and every tongue should confess
that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

GOSPEL: MARK 15:1-39

<sup>15</sup> As soon as it was morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council. They bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate. <sup>2</sup> Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” He answered him, “You say so.” <sup>3</sup> Then the chief priests accused him of many things. <sup>4</sup> Pilate asked him again, “Have you no answer? See how many charges they bring against you.” <sup>5</sup> But Jesus made no further reply, so that Pilate was amazed.

<sup>6</sup> Now at the festival he used to release a prisoner for them, anyone for whom they asked. <sup>7</sup> Now a man called Barabbas was in prison with the rebels who had committed murder during the insurrection. <sup>8</sup> So the crowd came and began to ask Pilate to do for them according to his custom. <sup>9</sup> Then he answered them, “Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?” <sup>10</sup> For he realized that it was out of jealousy that the chief priests had handed him over. <sup>11</sup> But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release Barabbas for them instead. <sup>12</sup> Pilate spoke to them again, “Then what do you wish me to do with the man you call the King of the Jews?” <sup>13</sup> They shouted back, “Crucify him!” <sup>14</sup> Pilate asked them, “Why, what evil has he done?” But they shouted all the more, “Crucify him!” <sup>15</sup> So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barabbas for them; and after flogging Jesus, he handed him over to be crucified.

<sup>16</sup> Then the soldiers led him into the courtyard of the palace (that is, the governor’s headquarters); and they called together the whole cohort. <sup>17</sup> And they clothed him in a purple cloak; and after twisting some thorns into a crown, they put it on him. <sup>18</sup> And they began saluting him, “Hail, King of the Jews!” <sup>19</sup> They struck his head with a reed, spat upon him, and knelt down in homage to him. <sup>20</sup> After mocking him, they stripped him of the purple cloak and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him out to crucify him.

<sup>21</sup> They compelled a passer-by, who was coming in from the country, to carry his cross; it was Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus. <sup>22</sup> Then they brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means the place of a skull). <sup>23</sup> And they offered him wine mixed with myrrh; but he did not take it. <sup>24</sup> And they crucified him, and divided his clothes among them, casting lots to decide what each should take.

<sup>33</sup> When it was noon, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. <sup>34</sup> At three o’clock Jesus cried out with a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” <sup>35</sup> When some of the bystanders heard it, they said, “Listen, he is calling for Elijah.” <sup>36</sup> And someone ran, filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a stick, and gave it to him to drink, saying, “Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down.” <sup>37</sup> Then Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last. <sup>38</sup> And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. <sup>39</sup> Now when the centurion, who stood facing him, saw that in this way he breathed his last, he said, “Truly this man was God’s Son!”
